This is Colby's first return visit to the Concordia Invitational Women's Hockey Tournament since winning the championship in 1977.

Last year's squad posted a 12-6-1 record and qualified for the post-season Eastern Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women Championship Tournaments.

Leading the Colby White Mules this season are tri-captains Jeffra Becknell, Linda Churchill and Karen Cowles. All three have been four year regulars and have made a tremendous contribution to the Colby program.

The Colby roster includes 11 letter winners and 9 rookies. How quickly this combination of youth and experience gells will be a major factor, as the team faces a very challenging twenty game schedules.

In early season play the White Mules have been competitive, losing to U.N.H. 5-1 and B.U. 4-3 while defeating B.C. 9-1.

York University's women's hockey team is presently in second place in the Ontario Women's Interuniversity Athletic Association with a 7-4-1 record. They were winners of their own Invitational in November of 1981 defeating the University of Toronto in the final. Barb Boyes, one of the assistant captains led York to an 11-5 victory with 6 goals and 2 assists versus Guelph in the same Tourney. Barb has also been nominated as C.I.A.U. "Athlete of the Week" this season which is quite an accomplishment. Her own school also selected her as "Yoewoman Athlete" of the Week.

Two other outstanding individuals, Sue Howard and Judy Butler have led greatly to the success of the team. They were also named "Athletes of the Week" on separate occasions by the Yoewomen.

Under the guidance of their new coach, Linda Berry, they are looking forward to an excellent second half of this season.

Colors: Red, Black & White

The 1981-82 season marks the 8th year of competitive ice hockey for the UNB Red Blazers. During these years the Blazers have been steadily improving and now have one of the strongest womens teams in Eastern Canada. In the past two seasons the UNB team has amassed a tournament record of 26-4-4 while winning 5 championships and 3 consolations. Earlier this year they added the Saint Mary's University Invitational Tournament championship to their list of achievements.

With a strong nucleus of 13 returning players and 8 promising rookies, the Blazers will present a well balanced attack with three equally strong lines.

The Red Blazers are anxious to see how their game stacks up to some of the bigger universities and colleges. They are confident that they will put up a strong showing.

"ISLANDERS"

No.	Name	Position
2&20	Michèle Doucet	Defense
3	Sandy Bowker	Centre
4	Sue Flynn	Left Wing
6	Claire Hilliker	Right Wing
7	Vicki Lafontaine	Centre
8	Louise Duguay	Defense
9	Liz Harrison	Left Wing
11	Wendy Rae	Defense
12	Chris St. Laurent	Right Wing
14	Kelley Parsons	Defense
15	Pat Wintle	Defense
16	Hollie Williams	Left Wing
42	Karen Kane	Goalie

Coach: Glenn Ruiter

Assistant: Jill Gowdey

Colors: Blue & Gold

This year's edition of the Islanders brings with it 10 veterans which is a pleasant change from last year when only three were on hand. The vets will play a big role in the development of the team and of course help build a team upon a solid core of experience.

The 1981-82 team appears to be very strong on defense and has added some scoring punch as well. Karen Kane returns to guard the nets, a very definite advantage for the squad. On defense Louise Duguay and Kelley Parsons will anchor a blue line crew which will have Pat Wintle back for her second year along with 2 strong first year players, Wendy Rae and Michèle Doucet.

Vicki Lafontaine, Sue Flynn, Sandy Bowker, Claire Hilliker and Hollie Williams are back and will be joined by Liz Harrison and Chris St. Laurent. They should indeed offer a strong performance in league play.

Trainer: Marc Gruder
Colors: Carnelian Red & White

The Cornell University women's hockey team has been very successful under the watchful eye of Bill Duthie. Since the team's debut in 1972 Bill has been their only head coach. The team's overall record is 112-40-4.

The Ivy league has held a Championship for the past six years and Cornell has won each time. In '79-80 they placed third in the first A.I.A.W. Ice Hockey Championship.

The present record this season is 3-4. High scorer is junior Digit Degidio with 15 goals and 11 assists. Last year she was nominated Co-Ivy "Player of the Year" and was also the leading scorer. In her three years of play her record is 78 goals and 54 assists.

Returning goaltender Sarah Mott is another bright spot on the team. In seven games played thus far, her goals against average is 5.23.

Colors: Maroon, Gold & White

Head Coach Bill Doherty's Concordia Stingers boast a veteran laden team that combines high powered offense with outstanding defensive play. Doherty's club, defending Quebec Women's Intercollegiate Hockey League champions, is presently tied for first place in the QWHL with a 7-1 league record and an 14-3 overall mark.

Leading the way for the Stingers is last year's "Most Valuable Player" also "Freshman Athlete of the Year" Corinne Corcoran who has amassed 50 points to date. Kathy Casey (9-19-28) and Edith Langlois (15-12-27) combined with Corinne give Concordia one of the top lines in Canada.

Converted forwards Julie Healy and Maureen Maloney provide added strength to the defensive corps anchored by Beth Egan. The goaltending duo of Denise Bienvenu and Kerry Laughlin have combined for a remarkable 1.4 goals against this season.

Taking over at the helm of the Lady Friars for the second year is Providence College graduate, John Marchetti. This year's team appears to be the strongest in their eight year history as the present record is 9-0.

So far this season, the Lady Friars have scored wins over Boston University, Boston College, Brown, Yale, North Eastern and the University of New Hampshire. The biggest upset of all being over the previous unconquerable U.N.H. team, which speaks highly for the present Providence team.

Coach Marchetti has twelve returning players with Jackie Gladu leading in scoring with 12 goals and 16 assists. Close behind her is newcomer Cindy Curley whose record is 13-13. "We have scoring, experience, depth and players who are willing to give their all," said Coach Marchetti.

The 1981-82 edition of the "Lady Blues" brings together twelve veterans and ten first year players, which produces an effective balance of experience and new blood.

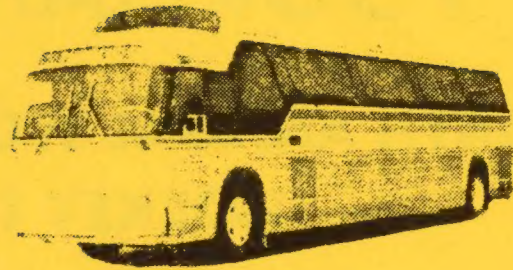

The team plays in the Ontario Women's Intercollegiate Athletic Association versus Guelph, McMaster, Queen's and York.

At present the Lady Blues, the defending champions, are at the top of the 1981-82 standings.

This will be the first time the University of Toronto women's hockey team has played in the Concordia Invitational Tournament and all concerned are looking forward to exciting, competitive hockey.
